REPORT ON FINANCIAL TRAINING PROGRAM

Date: 15.05.2024

The NSS Cell of Mohamed Sathak A.J. College of Engineering collaborated with the National Centre for Financial Education (NCFE) to organize a comprehensive financial training program for the college's non-teaching staff on 13.05.2024. The primary objective of this initiative was to enhance financial literacy among the staff, empowering them with essential skills for better financial management and decision-making. The training took place in the college seminar hall, which was fully equipped to provide a conducive environment for learning.

The program witnessed active participation from around 50 non-teaching staff members, including administrative staff, lab assistants, and maintenance personnel. These participants were eager to improve their understanding of financial concepts and gain practical knowledge that could be applied to their personal and professional lives. The session was led by Mr. S. N. Jayabalan, a highly experienced financial education trainer from NCFE. He brought with him a wealth of knowledge and experience, having conducted numerous workshops on financial literacy across various institutions.

The program began with an introductory address by Dr. A. Balakrishnan, the NSS Program Officer, who emphasized the importance of financial literacy in today's economic environment. This was followed by Mr. Jayabalan's engaging and interactive lectures. He broke down complex financial topics into simple, relatable examples, ensuring that all participants could easily grasp the concepts being taught. The training also included Q&A sessions, where participants had the opportunity to clarify their doubts and gain deeper insights into specific financial matters.

To reinforce the theoretical knowledge, practical exercises were integrated into the training. Participants engaged in activities such as budgeting simulations and financial planning exercises, allowing them to apply what they had learned in a hands-on manner. This practical approach helped to solidify their understanding and build confidence in managing their finances.

Feedback collected from the participants indicated a high level of satisfaction with the training program. Many expressed their appreciation for the practical insights and useful knowledge gained, which they believed would significantly benefit their personal financial management.
